

Wilhelmina E. Robertson

Cockspur Inc.

Wilhelmina E. (“Beth”) Robertson is president of Cockspur, Inc. (investments) and Chair of the Board of LSF LCC, a furniture company. Ms. Robertson served as a founding Director of the Board of Amegy Bank of Texas, at its inception in 1982 to 2005 and continues to serve on its Advisory Board. A Houston native and graduate of the University of Texas, Ms. Robertson has served on many not-for-profit organizations. Currently she serves the boards of The Cullen Foundation, the Museum of Fine Arts Houston, the University of Texas Health Science Center Development Board, Houston Wilderness, and the Board of Advisors for the James A. Baker III Institute for Public Policy. She is a former Regent and Chair of the University of Houston System and former Chair of The Cullen Trust for Health Care. Ms. Robertson’s honors include being the first recipient of the YWCA Carol Sterling Masterson Woman of the Year Award (1994), the Kinkaid School Distinguished Alumna Award (1998) and the Phi Beta Kappa Outstanding Contribution to Education Award (1995). She received an Honorary Doctors in Letters from University of Houston (1998), the University of Houston Alumni President’s Award (2003) and the University of Houston President’s Medallion (2011). She was named Houston’s Outstanding Community Volunteer Fundraiser of 2008 on National Philanthropy Day.